

There are so many REASONS to RACE. What is yours? Who will you SPONSOR? Wouldn't it be cool if there were an easy way to RACE for a REASON? We think so! Ben Webb and friends are working to create an online environment for anyone with a REASON to champion their own cause, RACING for their own REASON.

If you don't have your own reason yet, please help us kick off MY REASON TO RACE. Ben's REASON is for his friend BRYANT AUGER. Bryant is afflicted with a rare vascular disease, Anck Vasculitis. He was diagnosed earlier this year and discovered he is one of fewer than 200 people with this disease in the U.S. Bryant and his family must travel to North Carolina for treatments once a month. This disease affects mainly his kidneys but also his respiratory system. He develops pink fluid in his nose and is not suppose to overexert himself. Bryant deals with his affliction with a very positive attitude. He continued to showed up for basketball practice and was able to participate for a few minutes in a few basketball games this past season. 100% of the proceeds raised, by sponsoring Ben in his triathlon on April 22nd, will benefit Bryant and his family to help pay for medical and travel expenses.

We look forward to seeing you at one or all of the Sponsorship drives. The first will be at Rocco's in Fredonia on March 30th starting at 9pm. The second will be at The Pub in Jamestown on April the 6th starting at 8pm. The last one, a week before the actual race, will be held at Webb's Captain's Table on April 13th starting with a Happy Hour at 4pm until 6pm. At 8pm Key Rowe will play acoustic guitar followed by the Porcelain Bus Drivers starting at 9pm until 12.

The RACE for Bryant is 32 miles long/51.5k all donations are based on miles completed.
